BPLD Book Clubs

Bite Sized Books T

Thursday | August 14th | 6:30 PM | Community Room

If you just can not seem to find the time to read, this group may be for you. Each month we will read a book under 250 pages. Topics will vary but expect the selection to be short and sweet! The pick for August is the charming and unexpectedly philosophical classic, The Little Prince, written by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry.

Cook the Book: A Cookbook Club

Thursday | August 28th | 6:30 PM | Community Room

Bring your love of food, cooking and eating down to BPLD. Four times a year, we will explore the food related stories in a cookbook and try out a new recipe to share with the group. The selection for August is James Beard Award Winner, Bryant Terry's Cookbook, Black Food: Stories, Art, and Recipes from Across the African Diaspora. Please stop by the help desk or email johnson@broadviewlibrary.org to sign a mandatory participation waiver.

Books are available for checkout at the Help Desk.

Going back-to-school after summer break can be tough, especially if you're just starting middle school, high school, or college. That's why the Broadview Public Library District wants to give you as many tools as we can to help you get through the year. With your library card or while you are in the library, visit: tutor.com

Not only do they provide tutors, but they are a valuable resource for practice quizzes, prepping for the SAT®/ACT®, and practice for the GRE®, GMAT®, LSAT®, &/or MCAT®. They even supply resources for the FAFSA® and will assist anyone of any age with career and job resources including: mock interviews and feedback for your resume & cover letter.
